

Grade 7 Science
Unit 4: The Earth's Crust

The Rock Cycle

The Rock Cycle

- A natural cycle.
- Represents a change process where the same materials are cycled throughout, producing different products under varying conditions.

- The materials found in rocks undergo constant change to produce new types of rocks under different conditions.

The Rock Cycle

